MAYOR

Baltimore, MD 21202

September 2015

Dear Prospective Combined Charity Campaign Donor:

Thank you so much for helping to raise almost $1 million in 2014 through the Combined Charity Campaign (CCC) for charitable organizations servicing the Baltimore metropolitan area. We should all take pride in helping thousands of families, children, animals and the environment.

As we embark on the 2015 Campaign, several goals and initiatives will be implemented to raise money for a city in need. With your help, we are striving for a city-wide goal of $800,000. I am certain that if we all work together, we will achieve this goal and help the less fortunate.

This year we embark on this campaign with the theme of "One Mission: One Baltimore." We know your kind donation, especially during difficult social and economic times, is truly from the heart and is greatly appreciated. Your donation gives many of the charitable organizations the ability to touch the lives of those in our area that are in need.

Please take the time to review the charitable organizations listed in this directory. Some of them have participated for some time, while others are new to the campaign. After you choose the charitable organization(s) you wish to help, go online to <http://ccc.baltimorecity.gov> and pledge electronically or complete your pledge sheet and return it to your CCC Coordinator.

If you have contributed to the CCC in the past, we appreciate your gift and we are asking you to continue giving. If you have never made a donation, please give and help us make "One Baltimore" for everyone.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, Mayor
City of Baltimore

Baltimore, Maryland 21202*

September 2015

Dear City Employee:

Welcome to a new year of giving with the Combined Charities Campaign (CCC).

The CCC is a workplace campaign that is administered to allow city employees to contribute to one or more charitable organizations featured in this year's directory. We are able to make this campaign possible with the help of many: thousands of city employees who so generously give year after year, hundreds of school and city employees that donate their time as coordinators and loaned executives and the administrative help of the United Way of Central Maryland. Last year we raised nearly $1 million. To all those who participated: THANK YOU!

This year, we ask that you come together for "One Mission" to become "One Baltimore" by supporting the charitable organizations that help Baltimore. By contributing, you have the ability to directly impact the lives of people in the city that we serve, organizations whose missions provide services to a vulnerable population and a host of causes that may be near and dear to your heart.

Your donation could:

Help students succeed in school

$60 per pay ($1,560 a year) helps provide a mentor for a school-aged child in United Way's Family Stability Initiative.

Help families become financially stable

$20 per pay ($520 per year) helps one person participate in a GED prep program to advance their career.

Help kids and adults stay healthy

$10 per pay ($260/year) helps provide 10 children with healthy meals during the summer months.

Please review this directory and choose the charities you wish to support. You can give online at <http://ccc.baltimorecity.gov>, or by payroll deduction, check, or credit card with your pledge card. You can also text CCC2015 to 51555 on your mobile device to give.

There is no gift that is too small and every little bit helps. Remember together we can accomplish great things.

Sincerely,

William Johnson, Director
Baltimore City Department of Transportation
Chair, Combined Charity Campaign
